

ORDER OF SERVICE

12 June 2022

Trinity Sunday

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics, and stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. We usually sing the hymns without announcement. To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

Today's service is led by Rev. Dr Fei Taule'ale'ausumai

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

Aware of the passing seasons of our lives,

we come seeking connection with something deeper.

For the beauty of falling leaves and clear blue skies after drenching rain,

we give thanks.

In the poignancy and depths of this autumn time,

we remember with tenderness all we have been given.

SILENCE

GATHERING

Mothering God, you gave us birth in the bright morning of this world.

Creator, source of every breath, you are our rain, our wind, our sun.

Mothering Christ, you took our form, offering us your food of light, grain of life, and grape of love, your very body for our peace.

Mothering Spirit, nurturing one, in arms of patience hold us close, so that in faith we root and grow until we flow'r, until we know.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

WOV 80 'Immortal Invisible God Only Wise'

Words: Walter Chalmers Smith 1824-1908 Music Welsh Melody 4 verses

1. Immortal, invisible, God only wise, in light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.

2. Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light, nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might;
thy justice like mountains high soaring above
thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love.
3. To all life thou givest, to both great and small;
in all life thou livest, the true life of all;
we blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
and wither and perish but naught changeth thee.
4. Great Creator of glory, pure Creator of light, thine angels adore thee, all veiling their sight;
all praise we would render, O help us to see
'tis only the splendor of light hideth thee.

WELCOME

Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Gospel/New Testament

John 16:12-15

Contemporary reading

'Who is the Trinity?'

By Hildegard of Bingen, 1098-1179

You are music.

You are life.

Source of everything,
creator of everything,
angelic hosts sing your praise.

Wonderfully radiant, deep,
mysterious.

You are alive in everything,
and yet you are unknown to us.

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks.

1. Wisdom, Sophia, joins in our labour;
she with us freely co-creates life;
on this adventure, loving our neighbours,
kindness we nurture, ending the strife.

2. Wisdom, Sophia, shares in our sorrows, joining us freely, feeling our pain,
caring, caressing, now and tomorrow,
giving us blessing, hope to regain.
3. Wisdom, Sophia, gives us new power, helping to free us, bringing us peace;
she with us healing that we may flower,
beauty revealing, talents released.
4. She is transforming, Wisdom, Sophia, daily reforming, giving new birth;
changing and growing, she with us freeing,
touching and flowing, nourishing earth.

HYMN

CH4 528 'Make Me a Channel of Your Peace'

Words: Prayer of St Francis, Music Sebastian Temple arr. B J Pulkingham, Public Domain

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
where there is injury your pardon;
and where there's doubt true faith in you.

*Oh master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand
to be loved as to love with all my soul.*
2. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope;
where there is darkness, only light;
and where there's sadness, ever joy.

*Oh master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand
to be loved as to love with all my soul.*

3. Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
in giving to all that we receive,
and in dying that we are born to eternal life.

*Oh master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand
to be loved as to love with all my soul.*

4. Make me a channel of your peace
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope
Where there is darkness only light
And where there's sadness every joy.

OFFERING SONG

Take my gifts and let me love you,
God who first of all loved me,
gave me light and food and shelter,
gave me life and set me free.

OFFERING PRAYER

For the Spirit of God in our lives,
for the uplifting power of a loving presence in the world – seen and unseen –

we give thanks.

We bring our gifts

of money, food, music and reflection

in that same spirit of generosity and love. Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Tony Kirby

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Romania and Moldova and the Reformed Church in Romania. We hold all refugees in our hearts. We pray in particular for those detained for many years in Papua New Guinea & Nauru. We give thanks for progress that has been made and pray that their calls for justice might yet find a compassionate response. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Hon Meka Whaitiri (Ikaroa-Rāwhiti), Arena Williams (Manurewa). Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of St Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Marton.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

*Renew your people, God,
and renew our life in this place.
Give us a new spirit of unity
with all who follow the Way of Jesus and new bonds of love with people of other faiths.*

*Bless the city in which we live that it may be a place where honest dealing,
good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.*

*Bless this church that what we know of your will
may become what we do,
and what we believe the strong impulse
of our worship and work.
Amen*

HYMN

WOV 328 'Filled With The Spirit's Power' (adapted)

Tune: Woodlonds

1. Filled with the Spirit's power, with one accord, the infant church confessed its risen Lord:
O Holy Spirit, in the church today,
no less your power of friendship now display.

2. Now with the mind of Christ set us on fire, that unity may be our great desire:
give joy and peace; give faith to hear your call,
and readiness in each to work for all.
3. Widen our love, good Spirit, to embrace in your strong care the people of each race:
like wind and fire with life among us move till we are known as Christ's and Christians prove.

SENDING OUT

Our time together is nearly over,
our worship draws to an end.
We pause for a moment to remember any image, any word, any inspiration that touched us.....
Drawing strength from that moment
and our time together,
we turn again to the outside world
and sing this blessing, for ourselves and to each other.....

SUNG AMEN

AUDIO REFLECTIONS

Sunday reflections are usually available on our website.
<http://www.standrews.org.nz/category/sunday-gathering>

We welcome all visitors and invite you to stay for morning tea or coffee.

Please sign the visitors' book at the back of the church.

We hope you enjoyed worshipping with us. At St Andrew's we want you to feel at home—to join in with the activities of our community of faith, or to come and find your own spiritual place in your own time. If you would like more information about St Andrew's or to explore becoming a member or associate member, please fill in one of the welcome leaflets (at the back of the church) and hand it to a minister or a welcoming team member.

Wellington City Council has introduced a COVID response package which includes some temporary changes to street parking in the city. On Saturday and Sunday the time limit for most metered parks has been extended to 180 minutes, 8am-8pm (compared to weekdays 8am-5pm when it is 120 minutes but extends to 180 minutes 5-8pm). The weekend charge had been reduced to $1/hour. This change is set to run from 21 March to 30 June 2022. If you have parked on the street initially and are staying for an after-church activity, it may be possible to move your car into the St Andrew's/Braemar car park but please be careful that you do not block anyone in.

GENEROUS GIVING

St Andrew's depends on the generous giving of members and friends. If you would like to make a donation or support our work through planned giving, please contact our Parish Office or Treasurer. Bank account for donations is: St Andrews on The Terrace, BNZ Lambton Qy, 02-0534-0004022-02

ST ANDREW'S COMMUNITY NOTICES

SPIRITED CONVERSATIONS

We have decided to start Spirited Conversations again. The first meeting will be on Tuesday 14 June starting at 7 pm in the upstairs Conference Rooms 1 and 2. As the rooms are not available until that time, we are suggesting that folk who would like a meal beforehand go to Little Penang on The Terrace where the good food will be accompanied by good conversation! Our speaker is Dave Lowe, Climate Scientist and Nobel Prize Winner.

In the early 1970s, budding Kiwi scientist Dave Lowe was posted at an atmospheric-monitoring station at Baring Head, Wellington. On a shoestring salary he measured carbon in the atmosphere, collecting vital data towards what became one of the most important discoveries in modern science.

What followed was a lifetime's career marked by hope and despair, as realisation dawned of what his measurements meant for the future of the planet. Dave has faced down climate deniers, foot-dragging bureaucracy and widespread complacency to open people's eyes to the effects of increasing fossil fuel emissions on our atmosphere.

Dave's talk will outline his personal and family life with his focus on science and his innovative flair that grew from working with other top scientists. He is a wonderful speaker. His personal memoir "The Alarmist: fifty years measuring climate change" (published in 2021 by Te Herenga Waka University Press) won the best first work of general nonfiction award at the Ockham NZ Book Awards on 11 May.

Note: suggestions for subsequent speakers will be warmly considered by Pat Booth, our new Spirited Conversations convenor: phone/text 027 476 0427, email patriciabooth@xtra.co.nz

SOUP FOR MATARIKI

We're looking for volunteers to make soup or bring bread to eat to celebrate Matariki after the service on 26th June.

If you can cook up a pot of warming soup or bring a loaf please let Fiona know after church or by email. fionaredsquirrel@gmail.com.

We have some facilities for warming up soup but it might be easier if you preheated it and brought it to church in your crockpot and just plug it in to keep it warm.

fionaredsquirrel@gmail.com.

Thanks, Fiona McDougal

CHUTNEY AND JAM SALES

We had at least 26 different kinds of jelly, jam, chutney and cordial at a successful stall on Sunday 22 May, and so far have made about $500. If you missed out last Sunday, or you have spread that jelly on your toast or chutney with your salad and immediately want more (or want to give some as gifts) there are some limited supplies left. Maxine Cunningham (jimax117@gmail.com) will take orders and/or will have a few jars available at morning tea for sale in the next week or two. Thanks, Maxine

AMNESTY NEWS JUNE 2022

Dear congregation

Why do I support Amnesty International? Because in an often cruel and unjust world they stand for the protection of human rights and the fight against injustice. For all people. As defined by the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights. They are a light in the darkness. Shirley Murray ran letter writing here at church many years ago. Douglas Lilburn was a great supporter, as are and have been many NZers I am sure.

I was planning to have a letter writing table set up during our shared lunch on June 12th. However – I am finding it difficult to obtain resources suitable for letter writing. And also there has been rather limited involvement in this activity by the congregation when we have set up in recent times.

1. It seems that actions of support taken immediately when an individual or group are under threat is most effective.
2. The New Zealand Amnesty web site gives an “easy to access” presentation of important recent human rights issues and opportunities for response.

So I suggest the following

1. Amnesty has a “Rapid Response” network. You can choose to join this and receive “case” information via email. At a frequency you choose. It is the priority letter writing network for Amnesty on behalf of individuals and communities at risk from around the world. To join this network, go to:
<https://www.amnesty.org.nz/amnesty-community/about/rapid-response-network>
2. Amnesty New Zealand has a website with the following tabs
Home/Take Action/Get Involved/Issues
Here you can find out about human rights news and also take actions including using digital tools. That site is: <https://www.amnesty.org.nz/>
3. The one time in the year when Amnesty provides physical letter writing resources is in December in their “Write for Rights” campaign – associated with “World Human Rights Day”. I will continue to offer that as a church and public event each year in early December.

Any comment or feedback welcomed.

Thanks everyone

Mike Wespel-Rose (with support from John Morgan)
